When the race of a person is not known, the race of his parents should be given, and if that is not known, the race of his grandparents should be given. If the race of a person is not known, the race of his parents should be given, and if that is not known, the race of his grandparents should be given. If the race of a person is not known, the race of his parents should be given, and if that is not known, the race of his grandparents should be given.
